Aims and Objectives

Knowledge and Understanding

- An overview of the causes of World War I and reasons why men enlisted to fight in the war.
- The places where Australians fought and the nature of warfare during World War I, including the Gallipoli campaign.
- The impact of World War I, with a particular emphasis on Australia (such as the use of propaganda to influence the civilian population, the changing role of women, the conscription debate).
- The commemoration of World War I, including debates about the nature and significance of the Anzac legend.

Skills

ACARA content:

- Use chronological sequencing to demonstrate the relationship between events and developments in different periods and places.
- Use historical terms and concepts.
- Identify and select different kinds of questions about the past to inform historical inquiry.
- Identify and locate relevant sources, using ICT and other methods.
- Process and synthesise information from a range of sources for use as evidence in an historical argument.
- Identify and analyse different historical interpretations (including their own).
- Develop texts, particularly descriptions and discussions that use evidence from a range of sources that are referenced.
- Select and use a range of communication forms (oral, graphic, written) and digital technologies.

| 1    | 1      | Lesson Overview
The intention of this lesson is for students to develop a picture of what Europe was like at the turn of the 20th century through source analysis. | • An overview of the causes of World War I and the reasons why men enlisted to fight in the war
• Use chronological sequencing to demonstrate the relationship between events and developments in different periods and places
• Use historical terms and concepts
• Select and use a range of communication forms (oral, graphic, written) and digital technologies | • Annotated map of Europe in 1900 (save to compare to map after Versailles) |
|      | 1      | Learning Activities
• Give students a blank European map. Have them use Google Maps to draw in the outlines of European countries today. Then ask students to draw in the borders that existed in 1900. (15 minutes)
• Using same map, students are to identify and annotate which countries shared alliances, language, religion and colonial superiority. (10 minutes)
• Teacher-led discussion on how Europe operated at the start of the 20th century. Notes on board if necessary. (15 minutes)
• End of class/homework question: “What changed between 1901 and 1914 to cause the Great War?” Students to find out three reasons (hopefully they uncover MAIN reasons). | | |

Students are introduced to the concept of Militarism, Alliances, Imperialism and Nationalism as causes for the Great War.
Learning Activities
- Through source analysis of images on projector, students are to continue developing their understanding of how Europe operated at the start of the 20th century. (15 minutes)
- Independent research on computers for the following definitions. (10 minutes)
  - Militarism
  - Alliances
  - Imperialism
  - Nationalism
- Discuss definitions as a group and come to an understanding of what these mean today and the impact they have on daily life. (10 minutes)
- Divide students into four groups and have them research how each one of these areas impacted the outbreak of WWI. They are to report their findings back to the class. Depending on the skill of your students, give them as much or as little background information that you choose. (45 minutes)
- Hand out MAIN worksheet to review work done in class, can also be used for homework. (10 minutes) | MAIN worksheet (Appendix 1)

Students are to receive information and analyse some of the events from the other primary theatre of war the Australians were involved in, the Western Front. | - The places where Australians fought and the nature of warfare during World War I, including the Gallipoli campaign
- The impact of World War I, with a particular emphasis on Australia
- The commemoration of World War I, including debates about the nature and significance of the Anzac legend
- Use historical terms and concepts | | |
| | Learning Activities
- Using the text Australians on the Western Front (DVA, 2006). Divide your class into five groups. Get each group to investigate one of the topics. The topics are:
  - The Wounded
  - The Enemy
  - The Allies
  - On Leave in England
  - After the War.
- Students are to use the resource and evaluate the impact and influence of AIF troops on each of these topics. They are to prepare a short 2-minute synopsis of each event for the class to use. | | | |
| 4 10 | Lesson Overview
Students are to analyse a range of sources and comment on the impact of WWI towards Australian cultural norms and stereotypes, with a particular focus on why Australians volunteered for war. | - Places Australians fought and the nature of WWI warfare, including the Gallipoli campaign
- The impact of World War I, with a particular emphasis on Australia
- The commemoration of World War I, including debates about the nature and significance of the Anzac legend
- Use historical terms and concepts | | |
| | Learning Activities
- Copy/scan images from Home Front (Commonwealth of Australia, 2011) depicting what life was like in Australia when war broke out. Spend 15 minutes as a class discussing these images. Focus discussion on connection to Britain, pressure from family/community, adventure, pay, free holiday etc. (15 minutes)
- Hand out ergo source analysis sheet and one image for students to analyse what is taking place in the image. (15 minutes)
- Have students write a short response to the following statement “Placing yourself at the outbreak of WWI, would you volunteer to go to war? Why/why not?” (15 minutes) | - Source analysis of teacher chosen images using http://ergo.slv.vic.gov.au template (Appendix 6) | | |

Questions

All questions and answers are to be completed in your workbook in full sentence form.

- Find a map of Western Europe and outline how the Schlieffen Plan was meant to work.
- Why did Germany want to attack France before Russia?
- How long did Schlieffen assume it would take Germany to defeat France? Why was this important?
- What were three problems Germany faced with the Schlieffen Plan?
- How did the Schlieffen Plan bring Britain and her empire (including Australia) into the war?
Appendix 2: Western Front – Worksheet 5.1 Trench Warfare

Soldiers on the Western Front regularly fought against the enemy.

This was called trench warfare, because when they were preparing to attack, the soldiers lived in trenches dug into the ground. When the sector of each trench was clear of debris and men nearby, the attack would begin. After the attack they might be moved to the rear to rest and recover for a period of time.

AERIAL VIEW OF TRENCH SUPERFICIAL

- Front Line Trenches
- Reconnaissance Trenches
- Reserve Trenches
- Firing Line Trenches
- Communication Trenches

Think about what a battle might have been like. What sounds would there be, what smells, what would the soldiers most likely be doing? Draw a scene of a battle and write down your ideas.
Appendix 3: Western Front – Worksheet 5.4 Trench Warfare

Appendix 4: Gallipoli Essay
